Contents

ReSoc- Resources in Societies. Introduction 7

Maja Gori, Thomas Stöllner, Constance von Rüden

INTRODUCTION. LIFE-WORLDS IN RESOURCE-SCAPES 9

Thomas Stöllner

Resources as Life Worlds: How Do Material Resources Shape Cognition and Culture? 15

Timothy J. LeCain

Resource-Scapes: Interwoven practices between appropriation and alienation in premodern mining communities 31

Thomas Stöllner

Linked resources: The metallurgy-pastoralism nexus 61

Mark Pearce

Local Knowledge and Sacralisation of Resources in the Iron Age Apennines (Italy). From Resource Landscapes to ResourceCultures 77

Raffaella Da Vela

Urban Mining? A new look at taphonomic processes as key to the reconstruction of waste and resource management in Late La Tène society 109

Milena Müller-Kissing, David Brönnimann, Johannes Wimmer Barbara Stopp, Hannele Rissanen, Norbert Spichtig

Technology and Social Dynamics of Mining in Bronze Age China 127

Yiu-Kang Hsu, Haichao Li

SKILL, EMBODIMENT AND THE GROWTH OF KNOWLEDGE 141

Constance von Rüden, Maja Gori

Craft apprenticeship, craft innovation and the relational aspects of skill 151

Nikolas Papadimitriou, Akis Goumas

The Anatomy of a Tradition 173

Christopher D. Buckley

Built from Paint: The Making of the Architectural Simulations in the Wall Paintings of Tell el-Dabᶜa/Egypt 203

Johannes Jungfleisch

RESOURCES AND COMPLEX SYSTEMS: INTRODUCTION 225

Michael Roos

Developing Agent-Based Modelling as a Tool for Interdisciplinarity with Particular Reference to Archaeology 231

Edmund Chattoe-Brown

Simulating resource exploitation strategies in Iron Age to Hellenistic communities in southwest Anatolia 247

Dries Daems, Stef Boogers

Migration in the Cetina Phenomenon? An Agent-Based Modelling Approach to Reasons for Mobility in the Adriatic Area between 2500 and 2000 BCE 263

Maja Gori, Frederik Schaff

A model of the emergence of the state 285

Martin Neumann